Second Collection for Flood Relief This Weekend

As you all know our brothers and sisters in the path of Hurricane Harvey have suffered greatly as a result of this cruel storm and the continued rain and flooding. They will need our help. As we know from our own experience it is the poor and the very poor that will suffer the most and are least able to rebuild their lives. They will need our assistance today and for many days, months and even years to come. Healing will not come overnight. Bishop Bransfield has set this weekend for the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to take up a special collection to assist the victims of this devastating national disaster.

Please be as generous as possible.

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Unable to forgive another means we are holding on to a past wrong and hoping for a better past. That is not going to happen. We must move on with our life by accepting we were unjustly treated and it will not be corrected. We are not condoning the injustice. We just do not let it control our lives any longer. Forgiveness is critical to living a healthy life in the present.
